IT IS FOLLY TO BUY READY-MADE CLOTHING!

WE ADVERTISE ONLY WHEN WE ARE ABLE TO PLACE BEFORE OUR CUSTOMERS GOODS THAT TELL THEIR OWN STORY.

In other words, Goods that are so cheap that it is palpable to every one that takes the trouble to look at them. Bargains do not grow on every bush. We advertise only when we have positive bargains to show.

Our customers are aware that our advertisements are a simple statement of facts, hence when we do advertise we are sure of a response.

We have just bought a consignment of very fine English Suitings that constituted the SPECIAL ORDER of a fine merchant tailor, whose prices for suits range from $50.00 to $75.00.

Between the time of shipment on the other side and their arrival in the Custom House here the importers determined that it would not be to their interests to deliver the goods as originally intended.

They were offered to us at a very low price, and that is exactly how we are enabled to place before our customers one of the choicest lots of Foreign Suitings' ever entered in the port of New York. In order to secure a rapid sale we have divided the foregoing lot into two classes, viz.:

$20.00 and $25.00

FOR A SUIT MADE TO ORDER.

Recollect, these suits are cut to your measure by the most experienced artists in the business. They are all made up under our direct supervision by our own skilled tailors, and have our FULL GUARANTEE in every particular. The trimmings combine elegance and durability; in short, a first-class suit of custom-made clothes in every respect.

We also show a handsome line of $5.00 Trouserings in silk and worsted stripes and checks that we know all about and can guarantee. There are thousands and thousands of people in New York and its vicinity who are in the habit of paying for a readymade suit of inferior goods more money than we are asking for the finest imported fabrics made to order. Hence we say IT IS FOLLY TO BUY READY-MADE CLOTHING.

EVERYDAY TALK AT THE THEATRES. Young Ed Sothern, who is now playing in "The Highest Bicder" at Col. Sinn's Park The tre, Brooklyn, has uncarined a letter written by his famous father, Lord Dundreary Sothern, when that geniteman played his last engagement in the Cry of Churches. The young man has a large number of his father's communications; in fact, it may almost be said that he collects them. The one in question, written to a larly, is dated from the Pierrepont House, Brooklyn, and reads as follows:

My Dran Friend. Here we are safe and sound, looking for $400. So that looks well. I had heped that you would be able to come to New York. Well, I am here. I pal num good. He will become a big man; mark my words. Now I will go and lie down. Yours truly.

NED.

The 'Eddy' mentioned in this letter is the present E. H. Sotnern. Whether he will become a big man still remains to be seen. At any rate, he is a popular one, especially with the members of the sex to which he does not belong. But young in his dressing-room and declined to appear in the street, d la Kyrie Bellew, for the benefit of the school-girl element. In time Sothern, like Kelcey, may overcome his intense bashtulness.

Jav Rial talks of going down to Panama and making about $5,000 a month. His friends tell him that by great care he may make that amount once, after which he will be but a teader memory. Mr. Rial, however, is cynical, and for him "the com-mon sun, the air, the skies" are not sufficient.

"Miss Kate Forsythe has returned to this city from Europe rather suddenly, like the conventional beautiful vision. "I have been all over the Continent," she said yesterday, .! and took a run down to Monaco." (Yes, naugaty Kate, we heard that before.) "There is nothing particularly new abroad. I was offered several engagements, but they were not to my living. The principal thing in London is "Sweet Laveoder." It is a jolly play. I small remain in this country until September, when I go back to England," It has been ramored that Miss Forsythe, it saked to be J. M. Hill's leading lany, would not return in September. Last Saturday Messrs. Abbey and Schoeffel celebrated the finith anniversary of their management of the Park Theatre, Boston, by the presentation of souvenira. Gillette's "Held by the Enemy" Company was the attraction. The official announcement was made that Messrs. Abbey and schoeffel had completed arrangements for the building of a n-w and magnificent theatre, which will give them a permanent Boston establishment and in which they can present the many important attractions which are now and hereafter to be under their personal direction. The new house is to be ready by the close of next season.

ROUSED FROM INACTION,

The precursor of their disease and destruction, the kidneys and biadder healthfully stimulated and toned with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, actively resume their functions. Thus Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh of the bladder and encuresis are prevented. For irritating di-uretics, and those numedicated and fiery stimulants which, used even in moderation, excite both the renal and vesical organs, this is the best possible substitute It is of totanic composition, and so congenial to the stomesh, the digestive processes of which it helps in no ordinary degree, that it is promptly assimilated by the system, and its tonic effects are speedily fail. Not only does it remedy insetivity of the kidneys, but renews a regular habit of the body, promotes a due secretion and beaithy flow of bile into the proper channels, and axpels from the orculation sorid principles productive of rheu-matism and gout. It is also the leading specific for explaints.

It doesn't look at all as if the sports who would go any distance to see an old-lashioned prize-fight between Charley Mitchell and Jack Dempsey are going to be gratified. Part of a long letter received by Mr. Hiensrd K. Fox from the Birmingham man reads as follows: "I basily injured my left on Sullivan during the recent fight, and time leaves me with two very queer hands. A man can't do much work without good fools, you know, so I shall leave all the fighting to my pariner. Jake Kiirain. We shall protectly arrive in the states some time in June, and I shall very intely go into some kind of business. After awhir, if my hands come fairly, I may take on a few men ten or twenty rounds. Perhaps I'm fooliss to do inat. I've got a fortune, a fine wife and lovely cuild. What does a man want more?" As Dempsey is doing as well as he wants ito, too, a rin-batte with the bare hands or skin-tigut gloves seems very far away.

of rage, after the man-ner of Betsey Trot-wood, Alice might have felt resentful; but the "Oh! I am so of rage, after the mandisappointed," subdued, though 'reproachful, and she wrote to me of its birth, not mentioning its sex; so I took that for granted, and from the moment I received the letter, cars and steamboats could scarcely carry me hither fast enough. I stopped once—saw some pretty little frocks for boys m a clothing store, and cricket eleven of St. Feter's, Kent, England, would like to hear from all interested in this game. Mr. Osborne thinks a few good teams might be organized here and some interesting games contested. Address in care the Commercial Union Insurance Company, No. 38 William street, New York City.

It is rumored that Billy Manden is married. His bride is a young lady whose parents are very well off. She was a member of his theatrical company during a misunderstanding with her father. When the marriage was annonneed her paren's relented. No wonder Madden didn't risk complications by coming to New York.

The Secretary of the Manhattan Athlete Club, of which the aimateur light-weight cham lon buxer of the National Association, P. F. T.olan, is a member, says: "TrolAn was not entered in the recent competitions at the Metropolitan Operations hip which no captifier at the Nassau Athletic Club's National Association's competitions. There is no objection, however, to his meeting Thompson or any other authoric response or or any other authoric meeting the properties of a trophy."

It coesn't look at all as if the sports who would go any distance to see an old-lashioned prize-fight between Charley Mitchell and Jack Dempsey are going to be gratified. Part of a long letter received by Mr. Richard & Fox from the Birmingham man reads a follows: "I banky injured my left on Sui-

Suddenly, as he nodded dreamily in his chair, he heard Atice's laughing voice:
"Ah! Uncle Albert, we have been deceiv-An: Chee Aloes and we have been decerving you. It is a boy:"

His spectacles tell upon his nose as he started with delight.

"Good!" he said, in a voice that seemed to come from a distance. "The urchin's name shall be Albert."

name shall be Albert."

Five minutes more, and he had snored himself into the future and he was watching the development of the babe into prarting childhood. It seemed that while little Albert was still doomed to the "ignominious petti was still doomed to the "ignominious petu coat" he lost both his parents. Then Uncle Albert prayed that his own life might be spared long enough to guide the boys' foot-steps along the perilous verge of manhood into its prime.

The years rolled on. The boy entered manhood, and dark and evil deeds began to be ascribed to him: but the old uncle trusted in God, saving many times : "He may be a good man yet. I cannot be harsh to the poor had, for Alice's imploring face rises up before me when I meditate disowning him."

A forgery! and the young criminal had fled no one knew whither. Then Albert Merton's hopes went down into the dust.

"Oh, if it had only been a girl!" he owning him.

"Ob. if it had only been a girl!" he groaned, bitterly.
"Uncle! uncle!" uncle!"
The old gentleman's spectacles fell from his nose upon the floor. He opened his eyes widely and stared at his smiling nicce.
"What have you been dreaming about, Uncle Albert? You were groaning fearfully Uncle Albert? You were groaming rearring when I awoke you."

The old man rubbed his eyes confusedly and then in a solemn voice asked:

"Is it a boy, Alice?"

"No, uncle, a girl," said the poor little mother, deprecatingly,

"Don't be sorry, Alice, I've had such a horrible dream. I'll tell it to you some time, but not now-I-I-feel quite nervous. Give me the baby."

And, holding the small roll of linen and finnel close to his broad breast, the old man thanked heaven for his little niece.
